"Frankly, Scarlett, I don't give a damn."

Everyone knows the familiar words of Rhett Butler to Scarlett O'Hara in the film classic "Gone with the Wind." So many people have repeated them that they have become a standard comeback signaling disinterest. However, in the script of Bishop Fenwick, they do not exist.

The people who make up the Fenwick family give much more than a "damn" — they give friendship, laughter, concern, experience, knowledge, respect and most of all — themselves. The stars of our show are tied by a bond that can not be severed with a few words because they have given and received too much. At Fenwick, Rhett's words have no meaning. Our standard answer when we are asked if we care is: "Frankly, my dear, I couldn't care more!"

This yearbook is intended to be a souvenir program of the production "1982-1983." We show the stars at work and at play, as well as the directors, producers and a cast of hundreds on the Fenwick set. Here are the scenes which will never be forgotten — the tears, the laughter and the greatest moments ever recorded on film. We have tried to capture the spirit of Fenwick on these pages, a spirit which combines the excitement and adventure of "Raiders of the Lost Ark," the unselfish love of "E.T.," as well as our own times of sharing and friendship. Not all of us can be a Henry Fonda or a Katherine Hepburn, but every member of the Bishop Fenwick community deserves an Academy Award for some special scene played over the past year.

That is why this book is written. We want to record the scenes and people who made them possible, both in front of the camera and behind the set. This is our collection of memories.

Critic's Choice

★★★★FATHER RICHARD MESSINA — For the past eleven years, Bishop Fenwick High School has been featuring a dazzling hit. The critics agree! Fr. Richard Messina's outstanding service to the Fenwick community and his dedication to the advancement of the school have earned him rave notices from the public. This talented man contributes in several different roles either in front of the cameras or behind the scenes. He is a star as school chaplain and is a headliner in the guidance and religion departments. The fans know Fr. Dick for his fine direction and award-winning personality, but he is probably best recognized for his talent of being able to relate successfully to young people. Whether it be welcoming a class of freshmen, teaching a religion course, or saying a mass for the student body, Fr. Dick adds his own unique personality to the scripts at Fenwick Productions. We applaud Fr. Richard Messina's performance in this book. In recognition for all that he has given to the students of Bishop Fenwick — his invaluable guidance, undeniable humor and immeasurable love — we say "ENCORE!" Good luck in future showings!

I CALL THE MOMENT "FENWICK"

Father Dick Messina, Chaplin

THERE HAVE BEEN MANY MOMENTS IN MY LIFE
EACH ONE FILLED WITH ITS OWN KIND
OF JOY
SOME WERE TOUCHED WITH PAIN
I HAVE LEARNED TO LOOK AT EACH
MOMENT
AS A GIFT TO ME
FROM LIFE
AND THAT, IN THE END, if lines missing
WILL MATTER MOST OF ALL

THERE HAS BEEN, HOWEVER
ONE MOMENT IN MY LIFE
ONE BRIEF AND BEAUTIFUL MOMENT
WHICH HAS TAUGHT ME MORE THAN
ALL THE OTHER MOMENTS
PUT TOGETHER
I CALL THE MOMENT "FENWICK"

I HAVE SHARED MUCH IN THAT MOMENT
THE LOVE OF SO MANY YOUNG PEOPLE
THEIR LAUGHTER AND THEIR CONFUSION
THEIR DISAPPOINTMENT AND THEIR DISILLUSIONMENT
THEIR COURAGE AND THEIR IDEALISM
THESE VIBRANT AND BEAUTIFUL
PEOPLE
HAVE TAUGHT ME TO BE YOUNG
IN THAT MOMENT
I HAVE BEEN TOUCHED
BY THE SOULS OF SO MANY CARING
PEOPLE
TEACHERS WHO HAVE COME AND GONE
BUT HAVE LEFT MY HEART
MARKED WITH THEIR SPECIAL KIND OF
LOVE

A PRINCIPAL WHOSE FAITH IN GOD
IN LIFE IN PEOPLE
HAS HELPED ME BELIEVE MORE
INTENSELY
IN ALL THE GOOD GIFTS AROUND ME
FRIENDS, ENDLESS FRIENDS, OF DIFFERENT AGES
YOUNG ONES, OLDER ONES
STAFF AND STUDENTS ALIKE
WHOSE LIVES HAVE ADDED COLOR TO MY MEMORIES
AND WHOSE ENERGIES, SHARED AND FREELY GIVEN,
HAVE LIFTED ME UP
AND CREATED FOR ME
A MANY PEOPLED FAMILY

FENWICK
A GROWING MOMENT IN MY LIFE

I WALK THE HALLS
WITH THE SHADOWS OF THE PAST
AND I REMEMBER THE MOMENT
WHICH PASSED SO QUICKLY
YET LINGERS STILL WITHIN

HOW DO YOU DESCRIBE THE MOMENT?

CAN LOVE BE MEASURED IN A WORD?
CAN CARING SPEAK A SOUND?
CAN FRIENDSHIP'S ECHO BE HEARD?
CAN ANYTHING CAPTURE THE MOMENT OF MY LIFE
CALLED "FENWICK"? ✓

IF FENWICK WERE A BOOK
I WOULD READ IT OFTEN AND AGAIN
IF IT WERE REALLY A MOVIE
I COULD RELIVE ITS STORY
WITH EACH VIEWING AND CAPTURE
ITS GLAMOUR ONCE MORE

BUT IT WAS ONLY A MOMENT OF TIME
A PASSING SHADOW OF ETERNITY
BRIEF WHEN YOU MEASURE IT AGAINST
THE ENDLESS SEASON OF FOREVER
AND YET, FILLED WITH SO MUCH
GIVING AND SHARING

NOW A NEW MOMENT COMES
THE MOMENT OF GOODBYE
THOSE OF US WHO MUST LEAVE
WILL NEVER LEAVE ALONE
THE GIFT OF FENWICK FOREVER
SO GOODBYE IS ONLY ONE SMALL
WORD { if lines missing

IT MEANS THE END OF STAYING
THE MOMENT WE CALLED "FENWICK" if lines missing
WHICH LINGERS DEEP WITHIN IT SHAPED OUR HEARTS, OUR THOUGHTS, OUR DREAMS
AND TAUGHT US HOW TO GIVE

FOR WHAT IS LIFE, IF NOT A CHANCE
TO DANCE AND SING AND SHARE
AND BRING TO ALL WHO TOUCH US
A KIND AND TENDER LOVE

AND WHEN WE MEET OUR GOD
AND PRAISE HIM FOR HIS GIFTS
WE WILL THANK HIM FOR LIFE AND
LOVE
AND HOW WE LEARNED TO GIVE
IN THAT ONE BRIEF AND BEAUTIFUL
MOMENT
OF OUR LIVES
I CALL THE MOMENT "FENWICK"

Reel 1: Freshman Orientation 1979

Cast: Incoming Freshmen, faculty and administration

Sound familiar? This scene is repeated every year in a special encore showing. It is as well remembered as the bar scene in "Casablanca," Rhett's farewell in "Gone with the Wind," and E.T.'s phoning home. It is the first reel in the movie, "The Fenwick Experience."

The members of the cast who joined in 1979, and those who came in later, are now preparing themselves for new roles in various films of their own making. They have become seasoned, confident actors and actresses, ready to take on "Life" — the ultimate production. Four years ago, it was "curtains up." Now as the house lights go on and the credits roll, these stars prepare themselves for the sequel to "The Fenwick Experience." For that we say "Break a leg." But for now — LIGHTS ... CAMERA ... ACTION!

At the Theater

The sun was bright when we went in,
But night and lights were there,
The walls had golden trimming on
And plush on every chair.

The people talked; the music played,
Then it grew black as pitch,
Yes, black as closets full of clothes,
Or caves, I don't know which.

The curtain rolled itself away,
It went I don't know where,
But, oh, that country just beyond,
I do wish we lived there!

[People] laugh and smile, but not the same,
Exactly as we do,
And if they ever have to cry
Their tears are different, too —

More shiny, somehow, and more sad,
You hold your breath to see
If everything will come out right
And they'll live happily.

If Pierrot will kiss Pierrette
Beneath an orange moon,
And Harlequin and Columbine
Outwit old Pantaloon.

You know they will, they always do,
But still your heart must beat,
And you must pray they will be saved,
And tremble in your seat.

And then it's over and they bow
All edged about with light,
The curtain rattles down and shuts
Them everyone from sight.

It's strange to find the afternoon
Still bright outside the door,
And all the people hurrying by
The way they were before!

Rachel Field

Fight to the Finish

A feeling of football fever fell upon the field as the figures of the players fleetfooted it from the locker room. Faithful that their muscle-flexing heroes would find fame by the finish of the game, the fans of the Bishop Fenwick football team fired themselves up.

The 1982 football squad featured familiar faces such as fearless captains Chris Rego, Dan Sullivan and Kevin Duffy. Unfortunately, certain factors frowned on the Crusader's fate. Despite effort-filled performances, the final record reflected two wins and eight losses.

In the future, Fenwickians will forget these facts and figures and remember the football players as: FABULOUS, FANTASTIC, FIERCE, FIRST RATE-FIGHTING MACHINES. The Fenwick football team and coach Paul Harrington are to be commended for their effort and attitude during a frustrating season.

Sticking to it

... is what the Fenwick field hockey team did as they wrapped up another successful season. After losing seven seniors, the girls pulled together to accomplish the remarkable feat of remaining unbeaten for the first seven games, only to lose to their arch-rival, Peabody. Also, for the first time ever, the Fenwick team competed in the Greater Boston League, as well as the State semi-finals. Even though the trip to the semi-finals ended with a defeat by Weston, the Fenwick girls lived up to their reputation of "sticking to it."

Bumps, Set, Spike

Any volleyball player knows the standard positions of bumps, set, spike, and the Fenwick players, according to Capt. Karen Juliano, are no exception. "We began with the bumps, and as we worked our way up to spiking, we concentrated on technique rather than strength." (Juliano, along with Darlene Saia, headed the varsity team of six seniors, two juniors and one sophomore.)

Despite the team's hard work, however, the season record was 0 — 10; the J. V. team finished with a 2 — 8 record. What the final tally doesn't show is the spirit and dedication of the team and coaching staff.

Right on Track

"Will all those who parked their cars in the middle of the parking lot, please remove them by 3:00 p.m.?" Another afternoon of track at Bishop Fenwick was about to begin.

The 1982 Cross Country record was an impressive one for both boys and girls. The boys' team, led by Captains Tom Griffin, Tom Nesbitt and Joe LaPlante finished the season with a 7-1 record. In addition, they captured a second place in the league meet. The girls' team ended the season with a 7-3 record, and they finished fourth in the league meet and third in the Northern Area meet.

On a New Track

What does the winter track team have that no other sport at Fenwick can claim? Diversity, that's what! This outstanding group of young men and women boasts a variety of talents — shot putter, sprinters, high jumpers, hurdlers, distance runner, and relay runners.

The girls' indoor track team, despite their 1-7 record, made tremendous strides, competing for the first time in the state's most difficult track league. Aided by outgoing seniors, Marialena Aylesbury, Jennifer Browning, Terri Radcliffe, runners; and Jocelyn Biron, Christine Brown and Beverly Agrella, shot putters, the team finished fifth in the Dual County League Meet.

The boys' team finished their season with an impressive 8-2 record. Many of the Crusader runners made the states and placed well. With the leadership of tri-captains Phil Putnam, Jeff Bernard and Matthew Abbatesa, and the fine coaching of Steve Czarnecki, the 1982-83 season was a success.

Row 1: Karen Wall, Jocelyn Biron, Terri Radcliffe, Maria Aylesbury, Ann Sullivan, Ilene Walsh, Kim Stockwell, Amy Kearns, Kelly Kemmer. Victory is the Icemen's Goal

You're cruising down Margin Street with the stereo blaring. All of a sudden, you catch sight of a sub compact up ahead. On the shiny chrome bumper is a sticker that reads, "The Puck Stops Here." It suddenly hits you — you're in Crusader territory where the Fenwick Icemen reign supreme.

Led by Captains Frank Barrett, Paul Brown and Kent Keating, the 1982-83 hockey team completed a successful season, finishing with an 11-6-2 record. The team, a blend of newcomers and seasoned veterans, consisted of seven seniors, eight sophomores, six juniors and two freshman. The hard-driving coaching of Bob Tierney molded these players into a fast, competitive team. Without a doubt, the speed and skill of the Fenwick Icemen would convince you that "THE PUCK STOPS HERE!"

Takin' It to the Court

The fans nervously glance at the clock. It reads 14 seconds left. The score is much too close. Fenwick is down by one point. Coach Skinner calls a "time out" and confidently assigns positions for the last play of the game. The players take the court. As the fans hold their breath, the ball is taken down court. It's passed, then passed again. Someone shoots — 2 seconds left — a swish! The crowd goes wild.

There were many cliffhangers like this played by the boys' basketball team during the 1982-83 season. After losing their first game, the boys rebounded to take the next five. Players such as Chris Lohning, who averaged seventeen points and eleven rebounds per game and Sean Ginley were key assets to the success of the team. The boys ended the season with a final record of 12-8.

Courtin' a Winning Season

For the past four years, in a biology lab on the bottom floor of BFHS, a successful girls' basketball team has taken root. Stuffed birds, hanging plants and biological diagrams fill the room, but, in one corner, a bulletin board displays notices about the BFHS girls' basketball team. These articles, schedules, stats, clippings and photographs are arranged with pride by Coach Jim Palin. His dedication as a coach, however, reaches beyond the ground floor of the school and continues on the hardwood floor of the gymnasium.

By the middle of February, the Lady Crusaders had earned an impressive 9-5 record in their league and a 9-9 record overall. The three captains, Jane O'Connor, high scorer, and leading rebounders, Sharon Murtagh and Shelagh White contributed to the success of this young team by supporting the enthusiasm and talent of the other players. These twelve girls can be proud to wear Lady Crusaders uniforms because of their winning attitude, winning season and winning coach.

The editors of this yearbook would like to express their appreciation to those people who made "Focus on Fenwick" a success. Special thanks to:

- Mr. LeDuc, for providing the yearbook staff with a room to work in and to the custodial staff for their help in renovating it.
- those teachers who gave their time to proofread our copy,
- the staff, both underclassmen and seniors, for a job well done,
- and our sincerest and warmest thanks to Mrs. Judith Juffre and Mrs. Marie Wall for their invaluable guidance without which, we would not have been able to produce the fine book we did.
